Article VI. Supplementary District Regulations

§ 170-71 Short-term rentals.

A. Legislative intent. The purpose of this section is to control and regulate the use of short-term rentals within the Town. The provisions of this section are intended to preserve and protect the health, character, safety, and general welfare of the residential neighborhoods where such uses may exist, and to mitigate the adverse effects of short-term rentals.

B. Definitions. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

ADJACENT PROPERTIES

(1) Other than as defined in paragraph (2), this shall mean properties, parcels, lots or units situated near or next to, adjoining, contiguous or abutting the subject property, whether on the same side of the road, across the road or behind the subject property; and

(2) When the subject property is a condominium unit that is a portion of a building containing condominium units on multiple floors with multiple condominium units on each floor, this shall mean all condominium units on the same floor as the subject property and also those condominium units adjoining directly above and below the subject property.

HABITABLE SPACE

The spaces in a building for living, sleeping, eating or cooking. Bathrooms, toilet rooms, closets, storage or utility spaces, garages, halls and laundry rooms are not considered habitable spaces.

OWNER

Person(s) and/or entity(ies) that hold(s) legal and/or equitable title to the short-term rental.

SHORT-TERM RENTAL

(1) A dwelling unit or part thereof rented for compensation of lodging by individuals for a period of not more than thirty-one (31) consecutive days.

(2) For the purpose of this Chapter, the term “short term rental” shall not include a bed-and-breakfast, boarding/lodging house, hotel or motel.

(3) Presumption of dwelling unit as short-term rental property.

C. Required Permit.

1. An owner shall obtain a revocable short-term rental permit prior to any dwelling unit being used for short-term rental purposes.

2. A short-term rental permit shall be valid for two (2) years and must be renewed upon expiration as long as the unit is used as a short-term rental.

3. The short-term rental permit is not transferable to a new owner. The new owner of property subject to a short-term rental permit must file a new application in accordance with the terms of this Section as if such property is not subject to a short-term rental permit.

4. No dwelling unit that was constructed as a single-family dwelling, two-family dwelling, multiple-family dwelling, dwelling with a business or dwelling above a first floor business after the enactment of this article shall be eligible to apply for a short-term rental permit for two (2) years after the issuance of the certificate of occupancy unless, at the time the application for the initial building permit for such dwelling is filed, an application for a short-term rental is also filed.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, those properties with short-term rental commitments existing on the date this section takes effect shall be permitted to honor such existing commitments and continue to make commitments for short-term rentals, but must apply, within thirty (30) days of the effective date, for all future short-term rental commitments.
